Noah and Kyuss's Peace Treaty

Q&A Corner

■ Since Kyuss's able to become a captain too, does that mean he's competent as well?

Certainly, I can't say that Kyuss is incompetent, but... he's timid compared to the elites who can become captains at the young age of 25. In the story, when Astra was promoted to captain, Kyuss was a low-ranking member of the 2nd Company. Astra and Kyuss make up exactly 25 years of chronology!

■ What kind of drawings does Kyuss make?

He's praised when his drawings are compared to amateurs, but when compared to pros, it's quite inferior. It's just, he can make drawings that draw people's attention and possess design sense.

■ Since Noah's hometown has a ratio of one male to four females, is there any issue with the succession

I plan to draw something related to that in the distant future! (Maybe.)
